

28 December 1956

Subject: Transmittal of Contract No. BC-200 and Amendment No. 1

Reference: (a) Conferences 1-2 November 1956, Washington, D.C.,
G.K., R.H.P., T.E. B.

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto are two (2) executed copies of the subject Contract and two (2) copies of Amendment No. 1 of the subject Contract.

The terms and conditions as presented in the subject Contract dated 7 December 1956 are satisfactory to us except for the following changes:

- a. The correct corporate name should read, Hycon Mfg. Company. This correction should be made in two places of the lead page of the Contract.
- b. Section E, Progress Payments, Paragraph (1). In accordance with our discussions of reference (a), Paragraph (1) should read as follows:

PROVIDED, that such progress payments shall not exceed 90 percent of the costs to the Contractor of direct labor, material and or component parts purchased, direct costs, burden and G & A for that property upon which payment is made, which costs shall be determined from evidence submitted by the Contractor and which must be such as is satisfactory to the Contracting Officer: etc.....

*Amendment no 2
to BC-200*

Amendment No. 1 dated 7 December 1956 of Contract BC-200 is satisfactory to us as presented.

We have executed Contract BC-200 with the understanding that the above change in paragraphs a. and b. will be incorporated as part of the finalized Contract.

I trust you will find these changes in conformance with the present program plans. In view of the urgency of this program and in accordance with verbal instructions, we are presently proceeding with this program.

Very truly yours,

HYCON MFG. COMPANY
